WASHINGTON, D. C.

PROSPECTUS OF THE EIGHTH VOLUME OF THE NATIONAL ERA.

G. BAILEY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. JOHN G. WHITTIER, CORRESPONDING EDITOR.

WASHINGTON, D. C. The National Era is a weekly newspaper, devoted to Literature and Politics.

In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man and the Equality of Rights, and opposes what-ever violates or tends to violate them, whether ever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be Involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Absolutism, Class Legis-Jatjon, the Selfishuese of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It holds no fellowship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and against each other are obsolete or settled, and that they are now chiefly used by the Sectional Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Liberty natural to the American mind, and to subjugate the American People to its rule. Disclaiming all conventions ng all connection with them, it yet sympathizes with those of their adherents who are honestly seeking through them to advance the substantial interests of the country, although it must believe that they have not chosen the

It is a supporter of the Independent Democracy, which holds that the Truths of the Decracy, which holds that the Truths of the Declaration of Independence are practical, that in their light the Constitution of the United States is to be interpreted, that to them the laws and institutions and usages of the country should be conformed—a Party, whose motto is, Union, not for the sake of Union, but for the sake of Freedom and Progress; and Law, not for the sake of Law, but for the Protection of Human Rights and Interests— the only sure foundation of order and concord.

In no sense is it the organ of a Party, or a mere Party Paper, but absolutely "free and independent," claiming to speak "by authority" for nobody except its editor, and racognising no authority in any quarter to prescribe its course and policy.

The Eighth Volume of the Era will com mence on the first of January ensuing, and be enlarged by the addition of four columns. We have neglected no means that sould promise to make it an agreeable companion for the Household, and an efficient co-adjutor to the enlighted Politician. It has secured able correspondents at home and abroad, and no journal in

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is enabled to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

tiful with the True, and to make both immediately subservient to the practical purposes of every-day life.

Able correspondents, at home and abroad, have been secured, and ample provision has been made for its Literary Miscellany.

It will publish condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explain movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position be able to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE-1854. A beautiful Engraving in each Number.

THE LIVING AGE has been abundantly honored by the appropriation of the best judges; it has by the appropation of the best judges, it has been pronounced to be sound and vigorous; various and entertaining; full of spirit and life; uniting the qualities which gratify the scholar, the philosopher, and the man of business, with those which recom-mend it to their wives and children. We shall now endeavor to add to these intrinsic excellences the greater attractions of Art, and, beginning with 1854, Every Number will contain an Impression from a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately egasys of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on poetry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the sugacious Spectator, the sparkling Eccaminer, the judicious Athenoum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval souphiseeness of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chomber's admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrew wit and wisdom from Panch, and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British aclonies.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday, by LITTELL, SON, & COMPANY, corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets, Boston. Price 12; centra number, or six dellars a year in advance. Remit tances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

The cost of this starch is about the same a common starch, the entire cost not exceeding cents per quart, and is made just as quick. I cents per quart, and is made just as quick. It pre-serves the clothes, and gives them a glossy and enam-elled appearance, that no other starch can do. This is an entirely new discovery, and the first time ever offered to the public. I ask a fee of only one dime for imparting the knowledge how to make this starch; and I expect to make more out of it at that low price than I could by selling it to a few of the rich for five dollars, which has been dene. Now, ladies and gendollars, which has been dene. Now, ladies and gen-tlemen, send on your dimes, and get this information, which some of you would not be without for fifty times its cost. Copy the address, and send for the in-formation when you have leisure. Better pay post-age both ways, sy sending a stamp along with the dime. Address, post paid, MRS. ANNETTA LA SHAW, Profitable and Honorable Employment! The Subscriber is desirous of having an agent in each county and town of the Union. A capital of from $5 to $10 only will be required, and anything like an efficient, energetic man, can make from three to five dollars per day; indeed, some of the agents now employed are realizing twice that sum. Every information will be given by addressing, postage paid, PROSPECTUS FOR 1864.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST. UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT. UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT.

THE Proprietors of the POST, in again coming before the public, would return thanks for the generus patronage which has placed them far in advance of every other literary weekly in America; and as the only suitable return for such free and hearty support, their arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of liberality probably unequalled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged, as contributors for the ensuing year, the following brilliant array of talent and genius:

Mrs. Southworth, Emerson Bennett, Mrs. Denterus Creane Green and Fagure Ference of the support of the contributors of the contribut son, Grace Greenwood, and Fanny Fern. In the first paper of January next, we design com-mencing an Original Novelet, written expressly for our columns, entitled

THE BRIDE OF THE WILDERNESS, By EMERSON BENNETT, author of "Viola, "Clara Moreland," "The Forged Will," etc.
This Novelet, by the popular author of "Clar Moreland," we design following by another, called THE STEP-MOTHER,

By Mrs. MARY A DENISON, author of "Home Patures," "Gertrude Russell," etc.
We have also the promise of a number of SKETCHES BY GRACE GREENWOOD.

Whose brilliant and versatile pen will be almost ex clusively employed upon the Post and her own "Lit tle Pilgrim."

Mrs. Southworth—whose fascinating works are now being rapidly republished in England—also, will maintain her old and pleasant connection with the Post. The next story from her gifted pen will be entitled. Miriam, The Avenger; or, The Fatal Vow

By EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH, author of "The Curse of Clifton," "The Lost Heiress," "The Deserted Wife," etc.

And last—not least—we are authorized to announce a series of articles from one who has rapidly riser very high in popular favor. They will be entitled A NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES,

A NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES,
By FANNY FERN, author of "Fern Leaves," etc.
We expect to be able to commence the Sketches by Fanny Fern, as well as the series by Grace Greenwood, in the early numbers of the coming year.
Engravings, Foreign Correspondence, Agricultural Articles, The News, Congrossional Reports, The Markets, etc., also shall be regularly given.

This volume should be in the hands of every cultivator of these delicious fruite, for it embodies, in a compact and available form, the experience of accomplished and practical Horticulturists on subjects which have come directly under their own observation for a long series of years. Of a former edition of "Buchanan on the Grape," we subjoin a few NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Mr. Downing, in his Horticulturist, says. "It deals more with facts, with actual experience and observation, and less with speculation, supposition, and belief, than anything on this topic that has yet appeared in the United States. In other words, a man may take it, and plant a vineyard, and raise grapes with success."

of the Newspaper Press, and the verdict of the Rend-ing Public. We have been utterly unable to fill our orders, so great has been the demand for this GREAT AMERICAN ROMANCE. The following are samples of the opinions of the orps Editorial: We have no hesitation in pronouncing The Lamplighter one of the most original, interesting, graphic, and affecting tales, that has lately appeared. We predict for it a sale and popularity equal to the most successful of modern romances.—Daily Eve. Travel-

this work is hardly excelled.—Boston Journal

The Lamplighter will shed many a ray around fire-sides and in hearths where now it may be there is much of darkness and despair.— Durly Ben, Boston. The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamp lighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be willing to put it aside until they have gone through. The author, whoever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would do redit to any writer. - Daily Advertiser, Boston The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which nating pages, without being made better by its kind-ly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cul-tivated and refined, as well as an original and imagi-cative mind, and writes with the esse, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Un cle Tom * Cabin, whose inclegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Daity Atlas.
